

Privacy Policy

Objective

To provide information to Network members of the ApplyReply System in relation to tenancy application that is accurate complete and up to date.

To protect and maintain the privacy of individuals profile accounts.

To comply with the National Privacy Principles as mentioned in the Privacy Act 1999.

To be transparent in our activities and keep the market place advised of our operations.

ApplyReply respects your privacy and it is important to us that you understand your rights in relation to your privacy.

ApplyReply is committed to protecting and maintaining the privacy of individuals and the information it stores in relation to accuracy and security of that information.

The information we collect

When you create a user profile we collect your information for the purpose of allowing you the opportunity to use our service to submit online tenancy applications to Network real estate agent members. Your profile will help complete applications faster by reducing the amount of duplicate data entry when applying for multiple properties.

How we use your information

ApplyReply may use and disclose your personal information:

- To agents who use the ApplyReply System for accepting tenancy applications.
- Where you have consented to the use and disclosure of your personal information.
- For direct marketing purposes.
- We may share your information with our other services and affiliated companies and third members so that they can contact you directly about their offers, promotions, goods or services.

The information provided by you can be passed onto government departments and or government agencies both State and Federal as defined in the Privacy Act and as required by law. Details relating to such government departments and agencies can be found on the Privacy Commissioners web site. We will also disclose your information where necessary to protect our rights and the company as a whole.
